

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1893.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

IN MICHIGAN.
There was a man in Michigan
Who used to wish, and wish again,
That spring would come
So he could "home"
And go away and fish again.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Baldwin Pianos at Gerbrich's.

Mr. Peyton Wheeler of West Fourth street is still confined to his bed. He does not gather strength as rapidly as his friends would wish.

Our new Sheriff-elect, James Mackey, will remove his office from Court street and occupy the frame building in Third street adjoining the Courthouse yard.

Who's got Mr. W. R. Smith's overcoat? That is a momentous question now agitating the genial William's mind. Don't hold your hands up all at once.

Colonel E. L. Manchester, Manager of the Keystone Commercial Company, yesterday shipped to Boston the third carload of dressed turkeys for this season.

Master John D. Becraft is in Cincinnati being fitted with the artificial limb for which so many Ledger readers kindly sent subscriptions. When he gets it he will render thanks to his generous friends.

The electric plant in the West End has been vastly improved in the past several weeks. A new boiler 18 feet in length and 6 feet in diameter has been installed, together with a feed water heater and purifier. The water that supplies the boiler passes through the water tube and is heated to 206° before entering the boiler. Besides being a labor saver it reduces the cost in the way of fuel and doubles boiler capacity of the plant.

Our stock of Mounted Diamonds is the largest in the city, comprising the very latest mountings. See our new Cluster Rings; nothing ever seen here like them; have the effect of a large solitaire. Our combination rings are new and beautiful—diamonds with ruby, emerald, sapphire, pearl and opals, all the latest combinations. We are leaders in diamond goods. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

TO THE BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS.

Your attention is called to the fact that there is little time left to sign up Contract A and send it in. To prevent any misunderstanding we make the following statement which has been made many times:

First: The 25% of stock provided in the contract is all that you will be required to take. If you have previously subscribed and paid in 10% the balance 90% of your subscription is credited to your contract, and you will not be required to take any more. If you sign the contract and we do not take the tobacco you are released from any further payment on your subscription that you have already made.

Second: There is no double liability on the stock. The incorporation papers distinctly state that individual property is not subject for corporate debts.

Third: Our schedule of prices are above the market; what more do you want? If the movement fails it will be because the farmers do not sign their tobacco, so that success or failure rests entirely with the Growers themselves. The time will not be extended. Yours truly, KENTUCKY AND OHIO BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS COMPANY.

Circuit Court.

The following Petit Jury was selected: James Collopy, William Foley, Anthony Layman, A. B. McAtee, James Claybrook, Pat Tierney, Jacob Sheeler, Reason Downing, Ben Marshall, William Gantley, W. D. Manley, J. W. Bramel, J. T. Lee, D. F. Weaver, G. W. Woodward, G. M. Devore, James Slattery, John Ball, William Downing, C. F. Breeze, Joseph Cochran, W. C. Johnson, A. D. Dickson, John Manion.

Messrs. S. P. Perrine, A. P. Lukins and Thomas A. Davis were appointed Jury Commissioners for the ensuing year.

Charles Clay, for robbery, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. Clay snatched a purse containing $5 from Mrs. Frank Purdon as she was passing over Limestone Bridge on February 18th last.

GERMANTOWN FIRE

Several Buildings Destroyed at an Early Hour This Morning

About 3 o'clock this morning the building in which the colored school is located at Germantown was discovered on fire.

Before gotten under control the flames had spread to adjoining houses, and in a short time Gallagher's livery stable, the schoolhouse, the Methodist Church, Shed Lewis's residence and Dr. Dimmitt's office were burned.

The loss is placed at $4,000 or $5,000, with no insurance.

Tomorrow Today Will Be Yesterday

Before today becomes yesterday, you'd best arrange with THE LEDGER for your Holiday Advertising, and with The Ledger Printery for your Job Printing.

DO IT TODAY

SUDDENLY STRICKEN

Judge L. W. Robertson Was Overcome Yesterday in Postoffice

Attorney L. W. Robertson, who had been in poor health for some time, but who had recovered sufficiently to attend to business, was present in the Circuit Court yesterday.

Upon adjournment just before noon he left the Courtroom in good spirits and went to the Postoffice; and while in the act of unlocking his box he was seen to sway backward and would have fallen but for the intervention of Messrs. W. C. Rogers and James Austin, who caught him.

He was at once carried into the Drugstore of Henry W. Ray, medical aid summoned, and soon after he was removed to his apartments at the New Central.

This morning Mr. Robertson is practically himself again, the ailment having been caused by acute indigestion.

INFIRMARY INMATES

The Rules Require Them to Remain on the Premises

The resolutions adopted and placarded for the conduct of affairs at the Mason County Infirmary have the right ring, and if enforced would make it an eleemosynary institution such as none need be ashamed of.

Section 1 of said resolutions says all inmates are required to remain upon the Infirmary premises unless given permission by the Superintendent to absent himself, otherwise he shall not be permitted to return until the Board of Directors act upon his case.

Is it enforced? During several weeks before the late November election the number of inmates of said institution to be seen on the streets of this city would lead one to believe that the rule was observed more in the breach than in its enforcement.

Again, Section 2 says an inmate who becomes intoxicated upon the premises or while away on leave of absence the Superintendent is authorized and directed to compel him to leave the premises and remain away until he is reinstated by the Board of Directors.

It is a well known fact that Infirmary inmates have paraded the streets of this city during the present month in an intense state of intoxication, and were not only drunk, but were more than obnoxious by their begging and importuning for money with which to buy more liquor.

The resolutions as adopted may be of recent date, and probably were called forth and enacted on account of the recent misconduct of the charges in care of the Infirmary officials. However that may be, the resolutions are all right if enforced. Something of the kind is certainly needed in order to restrict some of the inmates and prevent them becoming a nuisance to other people.

Mrs. J. W. Cunningham is very ill with pneumonia at her home in Forest avenue.

Mr. R. K. Hoedlich, Cashier of the Bank of Maysville, was able to be out for a short time yesterday.

A NEW AND BRILLIANT STAR IN THE MUSICAL FIRMAMENT.

Well's Band appears to have shot up into the musical firmament with dazzling brilliancy, and shines as a star of the first magnitude. Its first real ascendancy was in more than five hundred concerts at the World's Fair, where it gained international importance. Within a year it was framed into a full concert band of forty-five high class artists, and today stands on a footing as one of the very foremost band organizations of the world. Our own public will have an opportunity to hear this new musical sensation Saturday, December 23, in a program that will put the organization on its mettle.

Rev. Charles Chesnut, the Evangelist, arrived here Monday from London, Ky., and is assisting Rev. Pilo in a protracted meeting at the Second M. E. Church, South, which began Monday night. All are invited.

To date seventy-three counties have reported officially to the Secretary of State, as required by law, returns of the election of November 7th last. Many of those reporting have failed to give the vote cast on the proposed Constitutional Amendment and others have given this vote alone. The State Election Commission is to meet tomorrow to canvass the returns.

PARIS hopes to get a $50,000 Government Building. If she does, and Mr. WINDOM is sent out to locate it, he will most likely dump it down at "Clay Village" or Shawhan; and then Paris will wish she hadn't.

THERE'S at least one tobacco grower that hasn't yielded to the dad-gasted Trust. Nearly two years ago he wrote that he would pay his subscription account "just as soon as he sold his tobacco;"—and he hasn't sold it yet.

AFTER all, there isn't much difference between the "square" gambler who plays for big stakes and the Church ladies who indulge in progressive euchre for "prizes"—excepting that the odds are decidedly in favor of the avowed gambler.

A NUMBER of Americans, men and women, attended a bullfight at a town in Mexico, and the "sport" was fine as long as the Matadors tortured and killed the poor bulls; but when one of the persecuted animals gored a couple of the Matadors,—and it is hoped killed both—the Americans left the arena in disgust.

THE Courier-Journal has been at great pains, on divers occasions, to say that those who voted for Mr. BARTH were just as honest and just as good as those who voted for Mr. O'NEIL. Many of them were, no doubt; but the redlight saloonists and the thugs probably "hold the balance of power" in Louisville. How many of these voted for Mr. O'NEIL?

If the next Legislature will give to Kentucky an impartial Election Law and an equitable Tax Law, it will be the best advertisement the old state ever had or could have. Surely, the time has come when there is need for more business and less politics at Frankfort.

CARY I. WARREN was assaulted by three footpads at Fourth and Park avenues in Louisville last night; was knocked down with the butt of a revolver, but frightened away his assailants by yelling.—Courier-Journal.

And here you've been telling us rural roosters all along that life and property were absolutely safe in Louisville under the protection of your splendid police force!

GATHERING strength each succeeding day, the cry in Ohio for a "new deal" has reached such proportions that it may now justly be termed an open revolt against the rule of the Machine; and, incidentally, there isn't enough left of the Mason county Machine to make a match. This means that there'll be no more "slate" making, no more Conventions called merely to ratify the selections of a few men.

A GANG of hoodlums on the C. and O. Flyer Sunday afternoon. In passing Ross they took a shot at the Station Agent, barely missing his head. They were arrested at Newport, charged with "disorderly conduct," and were fined $5 each for "jumping on and off trains of the C. and O." If they had only killed the Station Agent, they might have been charged with breach of the peace and fined $5.50 for shooting craps.

"Mabel, I have something to say that I think will astonish you."

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence. There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boescher's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption. It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration. But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is

The "Black Hand" has apparently taken up the case of young Pearson, the Kenyon College student who was killed by a train after being tied to a railroad track while awaiting initiation into a Greek Letter Fraternity.

Coroner Scarborough Monday received the following letter, mailed at Station V, Brooklyn, N. Y.:

"Coroner Scarborough: Call off your dogs. Pearson was not injured by any student. You are courting serious trouble."

The letter was signed by a big, black hand. The Coroner has turned the letter over to the Postoffice authorities to investigate.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return, except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

Mr. Arthur P. Curran, late of The Dover Messenger, will soon make his home in Washington City.

Colonel Robert L. Crigler, well known Kentucky whiskey man, died yesterday morning in Cincinnati, aged 71.

Mr. Nick Gollenstein and his gang of workmen are doing some needed repairing to the extreme West End of Third street.

When it comes to guessing who will be in several of the offices to be filled by Council at its next meeting, there is one a-coming.

Any one knowing of any of the heirs of the Robert Runyon, who had a very large tract of land which is now incorporated with Covington and Newport, Ky., will please address Mrs. R. D. Wallingford, 927 Forest avenue, at once. It will be to their interest to call and see me if convenient.

HIGHEST PRAISE.

Some Maysville Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing is more modern than Has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror." Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Maysville public is hearty expression from Maysville people. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed in Maysville. No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros. meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says—

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Maysville people. Call at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore and ask what their customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

SECOND MARRIAGE

Occurs on the Anniversary of First Husband's Assassination

THE LEDGER Monday noted the marriage of Mr. William Kroll, aged 27, and Mrs. Mary E. Moore, aged 42, both of Lexington, which took place Saturday evening in the County Clerk's office in this city.

It develops that Mrs. Moore is the widow of William Moore, who was assassinated one year ago on Saturday last by three Negroes in a Lexington saloon.

She was formerly a Miss Bramel of this county, and is the mother of ten children, ranging in age from 21 to 4 years.

Immediately after the murder of her husband a fund was started in Lexington to purchase a home for herself and family.

Upon learning of the second marriage her children are in a state of revolt and the elder threaten to exclude the newly-wedded from the home on their return to Lexington.

If you are troubled with dizzy spells, headache, indigestion, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. If it fails get your money back; that's fair. 25 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

FALL COLDS

Prominent Society Woman Advises Maysville People Best Means to Cure Them.

"To the People of Maysville: Knowing how prevalent hard colds are at this season of the year, and into what danger they often lead, I want to tell you of my experience, as it may be the means of saving your life, as I believe mine was saved by Vinol, the best cod liver oil preparation in the world.

SALLIE VAN WICK.

"On my way home from a reception, thinly clad, I contracted a severe cold and cough. I tried different cod liver oil preparations and other remedies; they only upset my stomach and gave me no relief. I finally sent for my physician. He prescribed for me, but I constantly grew worse, and as a last resort he advised me to try Vinol. I found it was delicious to take and did not upset my stomach like the other cod liver oil preparations. It soon effected a complete cure, built up my general health, and made me feel stronger and better than I have for years.

"My druggist from whom I purchased Vinol tells me that it has taken the place of old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, because it contains in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal, curative and body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the system-clogging oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and if Vinol does for Maysville people what it did for me it will be worth $100 a bottle to them."—Sallie Van Wick, Vice-President of the Anderson Driving Club, Atlanta, Ga.

Our local druggist, Mr. John C. Pecor, says: "We have never sold a remedy in our store equal to Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles, or to build up a run down system, and we will return the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction."

A. M. Baker of Lexington has been admitted to practice law at the Mason Bar.

Miss Nancy Bland of this city underwent a surgical operation this morning at Lexington.

Mr. Frank H. Clark of West Third street was housed yesterday, suffering with a severe cold.
